“ We Cyndi & I are sadden to hear of "Pops" passing. I remember as a young adult how kind and generous he was with his welcome handshake and big smile. He always took time to ask how life was going and sincerely listen to what we were up to and our future plans. I was lucky to have Eli as a friend/classmate, but most of all to be a part of the Macias family. Our prayers and condolences go out to the entire family. Adrian & Cyndi Maritnez

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Macias family during this time. We will always remember visiting with our uncle Eli and talking about the vegetables he planted in his garden. He honored us with one of his amazing cedar chests which we cherish to this day. We loved him dearly and he will be greatly missed!
