“ Liz was my Sunday school teacher then became a friend. She was one of the wisest woman I have ever know. I'm so sorry for your loss. I know she will be sorely missed.

“ I am so very grateful and blessed that I got to have Liz as a friend . We sang together in the alto section at church . And I loved getting to sit beside her . We could encourage each other ,both being in our 80's and feeling like our voices "weren't what they used to be ". But, she was" note perfect" and a gift to our alto section, our choir and an encouragement to me. We shared our faith , our love for worship , our love for church , company in church(from the time she joined choir we sat together ,both being widows} My love and heartfelt prayers go to you as you/we adjust to the lost our precious Liz.
