“ Libby was one of a kind...Not only was she so beautiful outside but also inside...She was so kind to all who gave her the opportunity to be kind but could be tough as leather if needed..I'll always remember her as one of the sweetest people I knew even thru dealing with her illness for such a long time and the pain that went with it... And being so very sick for a very long time and then on a good day she would stop by my store.and we'd talk about how great it was to have a good day, almost pain free and wished Roger wasn't working so he could enjoy it with her even tho she understood he had to work. . I think of you often and the laughs we had and I know you and your mom are having a great time and looking down on all her loved ones and wondering why are ya'll so worried about all the small stuff when in reality it really just doesn't matter much.. And talked so much on how you loved your dad and brother Ray and wanted them both to be Happy... You really had the heart of and Angel and keep a special spot for me in Heaven but I hope its going to be a while...Love and Miss you my friend...as I know all who knew and loved you...And now NO MORE PAIN... Your Loving Friend who totally understood you and the pain you had to deal with daily...God be with you now...

“ Libby...one of a kind, there will never be another. Kind, but will tell it like it is. Funny, but not a fool. Honest all day every day. Fearless but so tender. Beautiful, smart and so witty. You take the cake girl. I will miss you, your laugh and your stories. Heart of gold, thank you for being so good to me when you didn't have to be, it means so much. Big love from Alex, Emmy and me. I am so happy you will get to be with your Mom. Praying for you Rodger. So sad.

“ Libby,
You fought a good fight and the battle is over.
In every step of the battle with you was your beloved husband
Rodger, a true gift from God.
Rest now, you are home.

“ Known to me all her life as "Libby", Elizabeth Jane was a beautiful, young woman with an enormous appetite for spiritual equity. She loved her extended family, as well as her husband Rodger. When a loved one is gone from us, it is unknown how much that individual will be missed in the future. "Libby" will be sorely missed. She now is free of pain and with her Mother whom she dearly loved.
