“ I love you sis... more than words can ever express. Things will never be the same. You were such a big part of everyones life than there will forever be a void which will never be filled but only by you. Dont you worry about your boys Tony and Jesusito... Jesusito is such a beautiful reflection of you. You were truly a great mother and did an awesome job in raising him to become the beautiful young man he is today , but because of you. I can go on forever but I will NOT say goodbye since I will forever have you with me and I will just say "see you later sis" I Love You!!!!

“ You don't get over it, you just get through it. You don't get by it, because you can't get around it. It doesn't 'get better'; it just gets different. Everyday... Grief puts on a new face....

“ To the family,
I am so sorry and words can not describe how you are feeling. Lisa was a great friend to me. I had some wonderful times with her. The good old boogie days. I meet my husband through knowing her. Jesse Salinas. She was also there to care for my child when she was 2-3 years old, while I was working. She was one of those friends you could always count on. I will miss her deeply. I wish I could be there in body to say good by, but I am in Florida. My husband will be there to say goodbye for me and I shall light a candle at a church here for her.

My condolences to all.
