Sherry and I send our condolences to Father Howard and the entire Drabek family. As I watched the video I was reminded of how many people Ella Mae impacted by the way she lived her life and cared for others. She is now with Our Lord and bringing a little brightness to heaven. May Our Lord continue to comfort all the friends and family in their time of sorrow.

“ Dear Mr. Drabek, Father Howard and Family. Bobbe and I send our deepest condolences to you on the passing of Mrs. Drabek. She certainly lived a rich and fruitful life and we feel quite honored to have known her for many years. We also were very privileged to serve as her Eucharistic Minister many times during Mass at Sacred Heart Church. She is now with our dear Lord, Mary and Joseph and is numbered among the saints. God bless her and the Drabek family! Dan and Bobbe Burke

“ Willie, Kathy, Janice, Patrick, Fr. Howard, & the entire family. Kim and I just wanted to let all of you know that you have our deepest sympathy on the loss of a true family icon who we admired. We are going to miss seeing her and Willie at all those funeral home visitations sitting next to or behind Gilbert & Sidonia Sliva-always some of the first people there, and possibly sitting in the same bench every time. Gone also is all those natural gas questions she would sometimes ask, and all the years of RVOS insurance she sold us. We regret not being able to attend, but with the COVID spike and all the public I have to deal with in my job, we don't want to risk anything being around people. Just know we have all the memories of her from family gatherings in our heart, and are praying for all of you. Greg and Kim Antrich

“ My deepest sympathy to Willie, Kathy, Janice, Patrick and Howard and all the grandchildren and great grandchildren of this sweet beautiful gentle woman called Ella. You were all blessed to have her to share your lives with. The memories you made with her will forever be in your hearts. Let those memories comfort you in the days ahead and bring you joy as you continue through life. Ella was one special lady and Im glad I knew her. She was always kind, always respectful and always friendly and I loved to have conversations with her. I know she's in heaven with her loved ones and her mind is at rest and she is once again Ella. Prayers and comfort to you all.

“ Ella Mae was a talker and a feeder. Many times she and Willie fed Msgr. Elmer Holtman, Howard, and myself at their home. Good hospitality conversation, and food. May she now have a happy place at the banquet table in heaven. Prayers and blessings for the family.

“ Our most vivid memory of Ella Mae was in 1956, the year we married. She and Willie lived on the same street as our parents, Louis and Annie Poncik. We asked them if they would conceal our car at their home on our wedding day. They graciously responded yes and closed it in their garage. We did not want it decorated as was the custom then.

Of course, she is Fred's cousin too. Their Dad's were brothers.

May God rest the soul of Ella Mae!
