“ I rember her moms birthday when Ellen came to florida. I took Anne to a nice restaurant and Ellen hid out at Anthonys house. When she walked in to the restaurant it was a big surprise. They both started crying at the same time. It was a very nice birthday for Anne. I got to talk to Ellen one more time at Amandas funeral. Now shes in heaven with Anne. Im sure there happy to see each other again. Some day I hope we will all see each other again. Tom Langan

“ I will always remember my cousin Ellen at our Christmas Eve dinners at our grandparents house. There was Dean Martin playing on the 8 track, the smell of fried fish and zeppola in the air, and gifts that filed the living room. One thing that baffeled me was that Ellen use to do is she would put her makeup on then wash her hair I use to always say doesn't that wash off the makeup but it stayed perfect. There are many more memories the 9 of us share which will always remain in our hearts

“ I will always remember my cousin Ellen as a teenager. She had many crushes. At one point her bedroom had posters of John Travolta all over the walls.
I remember her driving without shoes on.
I know she loved living in Texas, but I always felt like a piece of her heart was in New York. New York missed her too.
Thank you Ellen for all the great memories, I can still see us all on Christmas Eve begging to open our presents. 😞

“ I use to work with Mrs Ellen at LB for many years, we had so many good times, a few bad times and most of all we shared our hearts. Halloween was our thing. I remember when we got tatoos together. We became like family very quick. She was such a wonderful person, kind hearted and most of all her faith was amazing. My thoughts and prayers to the family. Mrs Ellen im going to miss you so much!! Your finally at peace with ur family in heaven. I love you Mrs Ellen. I'll always be your peanut. Love always your peanut.!
