“ *Michael,
I have a lot of respect for your father. When we moved to Needville, he was one of the first people we met, he was welcoming, and became a good friend. There are so many memories I have of him, from his cutting the lids off his barrels to cleaning deer in the yard to him harvesting our chickens after youth fair. He was someone we loved to talk to. He was always busy yet the first to lend a hand and help out. We will miss him.*

“ We send our condolences to the family as we have known Emil for many years and went on many trail rides and parades with him and his beautiful horse. We even tried to buy his horse and he said no I think I will keep him for a while. We are members of the Fort Bend trail riders Club. We will miss Emil and we send prayers to his family.
