“ *To all my cousins,
Death is certainly our enemy, just like the bible explains for it robs us of our loved ones.
On the other hand, we wait for Gods promise of a ressurection, which gives us hope.
I remember when we would visit you guys, your dad would pinch my cheek, which hurt, but then he would give it a shake, ouch!
Hold on to your memories and stay close to each other, our thoughts are with you all.
Love, Mireya*

“ To all my cousins: so sorry you lost your dad too soon. I remember how he loved to tease me all the time because of my bad Spanish. He definitely had the Buentello humor although being a DeLeon. Please know that Jesus Christ promised that 'the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will be raised back to life' and we will get to see them again as we knew them, fresh and full of life. Wish I could be there with you as you were with us when Daddy died

“ To all my cousins,
Please accept our condolences on behalf of myself and my family. I will always remember the nickname your father gave me when I was 6 years old and got my first pair of eyeglasses. He called me Mrs. Tucker. She was the lady pictured on the can of Mrs. Tucker Shortening. I know you must each have your own special memories of your dad. Recall these when you feel sad and they will lift your spirits and bring your joy. The good person that your father was lives on in each of you. So does the beauty of your mother. The way you live your lives is a testament to the fine people that they both were. What a wonderful legacy they left in each of you and your children. May you find comfort in each other and in beautiful memories as the days pass and know that soon we will all be reunited with our parents in the resurrection hope that our Heavenly Father Jehovah and His son Jesus promise.
