

Ercilia "Chila" Villagomez

March 23, 1938 - March 1, 2025

Ercilia "Chila" Villagomez, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, passed away on March 1, 2025. Born on March 23, 1938, Chila moved to Rosenberg, Texas from Monterrey, Mexico, after marrying her husband, Francisco "Pancho" Villagomez, at the age of 19.

A devoted mother to five children, Chila worked the night shift at Richmond State School, as a counselor providing care and support to individuals in need, so that she could raise her children during the day. Chila had a heart for service and was a loving caregiver to her daughter Rosa Elena, who lived courageously with a brain tumor for 19 years; her daughter Anita, helping her recover from a serious horseback riding accident; and her husband, Francisco, following his stroke.

A talented crocheter, she created beautiful baby clothes and blankets that brought warmth and joy to countless friends and relatives. Her kindness, strength, and selflessness touched many lives, and she will be deeply missed.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Francisco Villagomez, and her daughter, Rosa Elena Partida. She is survived by her children: Anita Villagomez, Frances Howard and her husband Rick Howard, Carlos Villagomez, and Carol Villagomez. She also leaves behind her cherished grandchildren, Luis Gabriel Partida, Alexandra Howard, and Carlos Villagomez, Jr., as well as her great-grandchildren, Jacob Manrique, Lauren Partida, and Emily Partida.

Chila is also survived by her beloved siblings, Emma Medina, Homero De La Garza, Magdalena Duron, and Omar De La Garza.

In honor of Chila's generous spirit, the family invites friends and loved ones to gather, share memories, and celebrate the life of a remarkable woman who gave so much to so many. The family extends a special thank you to the staff of Elite Hospice for the wonderful care and compassion they provided during Chila's final days.

Funeral services will be held at Greenlawn Davis Funeral Home, Rosenberg, Texas on Friday, March 7, at 2 p.m., followed by burial.

Expressions of remembrance and condolences are welcome and may be left for the family at www.davisgreenlawnfh.com.
