“ Papa it hasn't gotten any easier. I drive down the street yelling at you to give me some kind of sign that you're hanging out with the big man upstairs. I haven't dreamt of you either. I know you have so many people that love you, and you have a lot of people to visit. Robert, Lenny, Miguel, AAdriana, Josh, Charlie and I all got together and made you a beautiful mural and listened to all your favorite songs and cried. We all miss you and will never forget you. Its brought us all closer than ever. Its just not the same without you.

“ Erik was a man who cared about anyone and everyone. Even if you were someone new to him. Hed help you in a heart beat. This man i loved "to the moon and back" not a lot of people knew me and erik were engaged. I went on the road with him in march last year and spent 8 months on the road with him going to every single state. We got to new york and found out we were going to have a family. Then one day hopes of having a family was taken away.. Then We decided to move to texas to start a new life together.but He missed his children each and every day. He wanted to hold and kiss them every given moment he had. He always talked about when they were little. How he loved to watch them grow. He loved to watch them play. He loved the fact that he had given life to something so beautiful.he always talked about his friends. From jen the bartender at lees. Amber who he always said was like his sister. Lenny who was the bestest friend who he could ever ask for. To miguel that always made him laugh about the stupid things he did. He loved and missed everyone. We were making plans to go back to cali to visit everyone. He loved living life like it was his last. He was a crazy  individual. And it was funny because he was little. He was a small guy with a big voice. I know that he loved everyone with no second thoughts. But erik has never failed to leave an impact on all of our lives. But in all. Baby. I will always "love you to the moon and back"and now iam keeping my promise by being with you till the end. Ill always keep my ring.. I promise.

“ I first want to give my condolences to Eric's mom and dad and his two children.

This was very hard for me to believe. I found out on Saturday night and I still can't believe it today. I know that it's true it's soaking in that I'm not going to hear or see Eric ever again.

he was a really good guy and a sweetheart but he can be a pain in the butt as well!!! Lol

Eric I'll never forget all the good times that we had together. Even if it was just for a good year and a half together. I'll never forget when I went with you on the road and You took me to Florida and we had so much fun there. And everywhere else that you took me to!! that was a great experience that I had with you and I still talk about it from this day. I'm just sad that I don't have any of those pictures and you did! I know things didn't work out between me and you but it was fun while it lasted. And I'm So happy that I was able to meet your beautiful daughter and son I'm so sorry that she had to lose her mommy and daddy. But sweetie don't forget there always going to be with you and watching over you. I don't know if you remember me but I still have the picture that we took together when we all went to Magic Mountain with my cousin Jamie and us! Baby girl my heart goes out to you and if you ever need anything you can always give me a call 1702587-0975 .

I'm going to miss you Eric, xoxo

“ I only had the pleasure of knowing Erik a little while, but I will say this... Anytime I had the opportunity to hang out and chat with him... He spoke of his kids and his eyes lit up every time! I was heartbroken to hear of his unfortunate motorcycle accident that took a true gentleman from us all. The nicest and purest guy. Such a tragic loss.

“ I can't believe this is true. I searched for hours on the internet yesterday in hopes that it wasn't true; Did not find anything yesterday. I looked today and your obituary was the first thing that popped up. I want to thank you for giving Michael the opportunity you gave him by taking him truckin'. It's a month he will never forget. LoL. You will be missed by so many. I know for myself it hurts knowing that I will never get a call from you ever again. I will miss you calling me Mami, calling and asking for advice or to see if I was home so that you could crash at my house on your way up North.
Erik, I miss you mijo; Soon we shall meet again. And for your little girl, I'm so sorry that you are having to go through this AGAIN; It's not fair to not have your parents growing up. XOXOXO “ Never was there a day where I thought you were next to leave. Never was there a day where I didn't already know you would text me or call me. Because even though I told you I didn't care or I didn't want to talk, you and I both knew you were still gonna be there for me with open arms. You were always there with open arms. I know it's not my fault, but I just wish I would've said my last goodbyes. And even though I didn't tell you I love you all too often, there were no words to be said, because we both knew. Even though things between us could've been better, you were still someone I could talk to and you loved me unconditionally. I never ever thought I'd lose you, wether it was because you gave up or you didn't care about me. You mean soo much to me and I thank you for trying your best to look after me and caring about me. Andrew and I both miss you, but I promise you I'll be strong for him and grandma. I hope you're with mommy and making ends meet. I'll always love you.

“ I cannot believe that this is true. I was hoping that this was something that was just a bad dream or something that was some sick joke. Man tiny dancer you really are gone. I'll never forget that you always saw the best in me and got mad when I never was what you thought I could be. I remember the day my life changed and I called you and all you said was "SEE I TOLD YOU WEENIE!" Hahaha. We had our ups, we had our downs, I brought you in when you had no where to go. We spent holidays together, created memories together, and fought like brother and sister. I appreciate everything you've done for me and I'll never forget the unconditional love you had for your children. I say this with a heavy heart that you're in a better place now. I will miss your laugh, your dancing, and most of all the kind words you always had for me. Love you tiny dancer.
