“ Sharon, I'm truly sorry for your loss. My condolences to you and your family and his loved ones. It's said that time heals all pain, but I believe you'll always have your moments of feeling the loss. Some days you'll laugh when you recall fond memories and other times you'll cry.

Praying that God will comfort your heart, uplift your spirit, and carry you through this time of sadness.

“ Sharon, I am deeply saddened by this great loss, your dear husband, Ernest Henry. My prayers are with you and your family. May God's spirit give you courage and faith in bereavement to meet the days ahead with the comfort of a reasonable, holy hope, in the midst of things we cannot understand, but to believe and trust in the resurrection to life everlasting. My deepest, sincerest sympathy, Maria Richardson
