“ To the Guthier family, especially Pastor Doug and Mary Lee:

You have my sincere sympathy after the death of your mother. Our mothers are so dear and irreplaceable, as I'm sure was yours! I pray that God will bring to your remembrance the many shared good times, and the love, and that He will comfort you as those of us cannot do. Let God be your healer in this time of shock and pain. She will live in your memory, as she lives in heaven. Bear in mind that we love you and feel your loss.

*Your friend in Christ,

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your family member. Many persons receive comfort from the bible, and I wanted to send some scriptural information concerning death. If you would like additional information, please contact Jehovah's Witnesses in your area or you may e-mail me if you like at ckater@msn.com.

In the Scriptures, death is clearly explained. Furthermore, the Bible not only reveals why we die but also explains the condition of the dead and offers hope for our deceased loved ones. Finally, it speaks of a momentous time when it will be possible to report: “Death is swallowed up forever.” 1 Corinthians 15:54.

The Bible explains death in familiar rather than mysterious terms. For example, it repeatedly likens dying to “falling asleep,” and it describes dead people as “sleeping in death.” Psalm 13:3; 1 Thessalonians 4:13; John 11:11-14 Death is also identified as an “enemy.” 1 Corinthians 15:26 More important, the Bible enables us to understand why death is like a sleep, why death afflicts mankind, and how this enemy will finally be defeated.
