“ My prayers go out to the Regalado family on E.L.'s passing. I started with Entex in 1992 when he was the collector and handed out the meter reading routes. The last time I saw him was years ago when he was a crossing guard at Taylor Ray, and upon seeing him, I stopped to talk to him. He was a great man always devoted to his family and I can still hear him talking just as it was yesterday. May God bless your whole family.

strength to find peace in this time of need.
My Tio Tanis, you will forever remain in my heart! I will continue to remember and cherish the memories we made throughout the years. You taught me so much! I will always remember going on walks with you, the conversations we had. Taking you to the flea market, and visit the family. God sure has another great man by his side! Say hello to my Grandpa Manuel and Tia Alicia. May you continue to watch over us! Until we meet again Tio! I Love You!*
