

Ester Reyes Rubalcaba

July 6, 1931 - June 17, 2025

Ester Rubalcaba was born July 6, 1931 in Richmond, TX to Marcos and Juanita Reyes and passed away peacefully surrounded by family at her daughter's home in Richmond, TX on June 17, 2025.

Mom's favorite color was yellow probably because she was like warm sunlight.

Mom was a compassionate caregiver. She was fearless and never worried about getting sick herself or catching any contagious disease while caring for others. She was an extraordinary, self-taught baker; who baked the most delicious pineapple empanadas, apple pies, and lemon meringue pies.

Mom was a lifetime member of St. John Fisher Catholic Church. She served many years as a lector, bazaar pastry table coordinator, and also assisted in making tamales for the church tamale fundraisers.

Mom lived God's commandment to love all; she will be sorely missed by those fortunate enough to have known her.

She is preceded in death by her parents, husband "hunny" Clemente Rubalcaba, brother Macario Reyes, and sister Olga Reyes.

She is survived by her daughters Olga Barr and Sylvia Rubalcaba; sons Carlos (Toni), Ricardo "Rick"; grandchildren David Wayne Barr, Jason Barr (Veronica), Marcus Guajardo (Melanie); great-grandchildren Christian Jayden Barr, Olivia Barr, Mason Guajardo, Max Guajardo; brothers Irineo "Neo" Reyes (Mary), Valdemar "Bobby" Reyes (Lucy); sister-in-law Christine Reyes.

Special thanks to the Enhabit Hospice team for their compassionate care, especially Nakia, Chandra, and Thomas.
