

Eugene Henry Hollek

July 11, 1929 - March 9, 2011

Eugene Henry Hollek, 81, passed from this earth to be with God on March 9th, 2011.

He was a man of God and a man of family. He and his loving wife of 55 years, Joyce Gansky of Schulenberg, have seven children and 15 grandchildren that meant so much to him in his life.

Eugene was born on July 11, 1929 and grew up in Weimar, Texas. He served in the U.S Army and upon completing his service in the army he returned home to marry Joyce, the love of his life. They moved to Houston in 1955 when he earned a job with Folgers Coffee Co. As a man of dedication and loyalty he would spend the next 45 years with the same company, eventually owned by Quaker, until his retirement. The years after his retirement were spent visiting with family and friends and the many grandchildren that brightened his day.

Those who knew Eugene understood he enjoyed the simple things. He moved to the big city and raised his family on small town values. He worked endless hours and took a second job with the Houston Post for 15 years to provide a catholic education for each of his children. He was an active member of the Knights of Columbus in his early years in Houston. And his passion was baseball, whether coaching one of his children, watching one of his grandchildren or simply taking in a game on a Sunday afternoon.

Eugene will be missed but lovingly remembered by his wife, Joyce; his children Vicky Weber J.D. of Spring, Darrell Therese of Conroe, Patricia Atkins Donnie of Spring, Russell Michele of Richmond, Tim Tricia of Sugar Land, Suzanne Bagley Randy of Richmond, and David Karen of Sugar Land and 15 grandchildren. He is also survived by brothers Wilbert Hollek of Weimar and John Hollek of Stockbridge, MI and sisters Vlasta Pat Hollek of Houston and Van Lee Bartosh of Weimar.

Visitation will be held on Friday the 11th at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Richmond, TX from 6:00-8:00 pm with a Rosary at 7:00. A Mass will be held Saturday at Sacred Heart at 10:00 am with burial following at Davis-Greenlawn in Rosenberg.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Richmond, TX.
