RIP Tio. So many memories of your good heart towards others. I will just share a couple. When my brothers were little, Tio Yeto came to Waelder for a visit in a truck. When he arrived he told my little brothers Roy, Raymond, Robert and Hito that they needed to unload his truck. So the boys went to the truck and to there surprise Tio had bikes for all of them. They will never forget that. I also remember as a kid when he would come visit he would bring us a box of bananas. I speak for me and all my siblings, WE WILL FOREVER BE GREATFUL FOR ALL TIO DID FOR OUR FAMILY. We LOVE you and Tia Petra so much. You will forever be in our hearts.
