“ Cuanto siento la pérdida de su amado, no hay duda que el dolor más grande que uno puede sentir es la muerte de un ser querido. Cuando la muerte toca a nuestra familia, aunque creamos en la resurrección aun así; podemos experimentar un tremendo pesar, hasta el mismo Jesús cedió a las lágrimas con la muerte de su amigo Lázaro, así; lo muestra Juan 11:33, 35. Por tal razón, quisiera compartir con usted algunas palabras de consolación que le ayudaran en estos momentos difíciles. Estas palabras se encuentran en la Biblia: Juan 5: 28- cito: “No se maravillen de esto, porque viene la hora en que todos los que están en las tumbas conmemorativas oirán su voz y saldrán....” Apocalipsis Revelación 21: 4 – nos da la siguiente promesa; “Y limpiaré toda lágrima de sus ojos, y la muerte no será más....” espero que estas palabras le ayude a lidiar con su dolor y le dé luz de esperanza.

“ May the family find comfort in loving memories, and in knowing that God is "close to those that are broken at heart; and he saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18 Our loving Creator, Jehovah God, has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8 With deepest sympathy.

“ Beloved father-in-law,

I don't even know where to begin. You will be missed so much! I will always cherish the memories we had together. We have shared a lot of laughter, tears, ups & downs. I wouldn't change any of it. I have been with your son for almost 16 years and for 15 years I have lived right across the street. How my heart hurts to know I won't see you there anymore. But I know in spirit you are with us. Now who am I going to argue with? You were like a second father to me. I was blessed with two dad's! You were a great husband, father, grandfather & friend. You will be missed by many! R.I.P I love you & Not goodbye but see you later! XOXOX

*Love Always your daughter-in-law

“ Mr. T was a great man and will be missed by many with no doubt. Our prayers go out to Mrs. T and the family. He lived his life with total devotion to his family. He was and is an inspiration to Jackie and I. Looking back I can remember all the discussions we would have for future businesses or ideas. I know it's cliché to say but he was a dreamer in every way. Always looking forward with hope and excitement for the next adventure. We try to compartmentalize our relationships, like this guy is my friend, this my neighbor, etc. In truth, I have always had a hard time putting T in that box. He was the dad I never had, my hunting buddy, poker pal, fishing partner, a golfer more dedicated to making the game no matter how many clouds were in the sky. The list goes on and on. In the end, he was my friend, one of the best I have and will ever know. Where other friends tend to let you down or may fade, Mr. T seem to go out of his way to keep giving. Always letting you know he's there for you.

T, I know you can see and hear all now. I know you are standing right beside God and are looking over the whole world. And the reason you are there is because of your dreams. Your desire to help, improve and build the way you did so many things during your time. Most men would have given up so long ago with what you had to deal with towards the end of your life. But, you held on to the very end and you did so for her, the love of your life, Mrs. T. We will never forget you T, we will always love you.

Your eternal friend, Brian

“ Felipe Viejo I am truly grateful to have had a Brotherly Friendship with you. I will cherish all the golf game memories that we enjoyed, Hot Days, Cold Days, and especially the Rainny Days. Viejo you broke-up the "V" team but we will re-ignite our team some day when we meet again. In your memory I will re-play all the golf courses we played and in your honor, I will hit a golf ball either in woods or in the water. Viejo, the Good Lord gives and takes, this time he took a good man, husband, father, grandfather and a friend to his side. You are in the best of hands "WITH THE LORD. "We will miss you but not forget you". My deepest Condolences to the family from my family. Your Friend Cantu Viejo
