“ I remember when my husband Bill and I visited her and she took us to the church to show us the beautiful quilts that she joined in making. I remember her helping me make nests for the Easter Bunny and helping take care of me when I was a lonely little girl. I remember her abiding kindness for all and so much more. Love to all the family from me and from Bill and Tristan. It's hard to be far away at times like these...

“ Each Sunday morning, Frances greeted church members / guests by handing out the hymnals. Each Sunday I will miss seeing her standing there, smiling warmly at us. Frances found a way to serve and is greatly missed. She is now in her heavenly home, and she is probably warmly greeting newcomers there too.
