“ I remember Frances working for my Dad - what memories that brings up! That was a wonderful time when everyone was alive and innocence was not lost.

Frances was the dearest neighbor and friend anyone could ever hope for. Watching her carry on by herself after losing Edwin was amazing; she set the bar high on how to grow old gracefully. Always quick with a smile and a laugh some days and then there were days when she'd give me "that look", shrug her shoulders and say "Whatcha gonna do?) I'm gonna miss you dear friend :) bj

God has gained a true angel. Frances was "one of a kind".- hard working, kind, gentle, loving, very talented and always ready to help. We have lost a wonderful former neighbor. We have many fond memories of time spent picking blackberries in her and Edwin's beautiful garden. What a wonderful life she lived!
Our sympathy to her loving family.
