“ I was invited to stay and play a few hands of 42 with the Kuboshes one night. I drew Mrs. Kubosh for a "pardner" and the game commenced. Ample servings of red beans and rice, apple crisp and coca cola fortified us until 4:00 am. Mrs. Kubosh also served as the referee. Paul and Mr. Kubosh's coughs, taps, hand motions were noted and consequences were promised. At least they were on guard. With a combination of my luck and her skill, we played them close enough for a few eruptions.

There were countless hours of playing around at the Kubosh's. I was made to feel welcome on every occasion and will always cherish the memories I have of her.

*My deepest sympathy,
Tim,*

The summer of 91, I met Grandma Kubosh (what she told me to call her) and she told me that I would part of the family from then on and I was. The military and the miles may have kept us apart but are hearts were always connected. I am honored to have the pleasure of knowing you.
