“ Pancho, happy birthday as we celebrate your life, tomorrow is also the day you went home to be with the lord. I remember as if it was yesterday. Know I love you and continue to have the lord bless us and watch over us. I love you and your memories will always live with me and no one can ever take that away from me cause I was always there to make those memories. Till I see you again I love you forever!!

“ To my Pancho , It's been almost 5 years and not a day goes by that I don't think of you and mom. I miss you everyday and remember when we would sit outside in the evenings when you came to my house everyday. I love and miss you very much. It gets harder but like you always said I was the strong one. So I'm keeping my promise and being the strong one for the family. Thank you for being my dad. I love and miss you much. Love your daughter Janet

“ To my Pancho, I miss you every day and I love you very much. Almost a year has passed and it seems like yesterday. My heart broke when you and my mom left me but I know that god had other plans for both of you. Love your daughter, Janet
