“ I am proud to say Frank was a friend of mine, a true friend. He was one of a very few men that I have met, that I could trust and respect with out any doubt. He always treated me with respect and consideration. I always enjoyed my conversations with him. My opinion of Frank is that he was an intelligent, considerate, respectful, and honest man. He was also a gentle an honorable and a proud man. He truly loved his family and the lord. He was a man that I knew for to short of time. He is someone that I will miss very much. I will always have good thoughts about him whenever I think about him. Frank I am glad that I met you and for all the time I spent with you. I am also glad that you are no longer suffering from the diseases and sicknesses that have been plaguing you for the last year or so and that you are now with the lord. God bless you and keep you for eternity.
