“ Fritz-No more than I shared with the kids that you had passed, they were all telling me how weird it was going to be without Fritz mowing the grass. They said this will be weird seeing someone else living in Fritz's house. I wonder who's going to live there, is what they said and I have to agree with them. Fritz, you were truly a fixture in the neighborhood and will be missed so very much. My family loved you and you were such a wonderful person and neighbor to all. I personally will miss conversation with you as you were so grounded with so much common sense and seemed to have an answer for just about everything. Our hearts go out to you and your family and all those friends who mourn over your absence here. On the other hand, I know God is so excited to finally get you up there with him.

We love you and will truly miss you!! We were so blessed to have you as a neighbor!! Thank you for being such a great guy!!
