

Gail Wyssmann Ainsworth

March 26, 1951 - February 12, 2010

Gail Wyssmann Ainsworth, 58, of Rosenberg, Texas passed away February 12, 2010 in Houston, Texas. She was born March 26, 1951 in Teaneck, New Jersey to Otto Walter and Mabel Dorothy Gernold Wyssmann. She passed quickly surrounded by her daughter, grand children and loved ones unexpectedly due to a massive heart attack.

She is preceded in death by her father, Otto Wyssmann.

Gail is survived by her husband of 37 years, James O. Ainsworth, Jr.; daughter, Aimee Fuller and husband, Kevin; son Andru Ainsworth and son Grant Sims; mother, Mabel Wyssmann; grandchildren, Jacob, Joshua and Sarah Fuller; sisters, Lynn Merlett and husband John and Judy Knizner and husband, Dave; father and mother in law James O. Ainsworth and Margaret Ainsworth; along with numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives and many friends.

Gail's world revolved around her three grand children who lovingly referred to her as their "Adda". She loved to drive over to Pearland twice a week to spend time with them. She was a very dedicated grandmother who selflessly gave of her love and time and was always there for them. She loved to Rock and Roll and some of her favorites were the Beatles and Aerosmith. To know Gail was to love her because she was such a unique person. She loved with her whole heart and those lucky enough to experience that will treasure that forever. She loved animals, especially English Springer Spaniels that she bred, raised and showed. She was artistic & crafty always making something special for someone else. She was talented with ceramics, painting and knitting, especially afghans. She was a great cook and loved preparing meals for her family. She loved her flowers and has the prettiest potted plants in front of her home that she tenderly cared for. She will be greatly missed by her family, grand babies and friends. She is an unforgettable soul that will never be forgotten.

Memorial Services will be held at The Sagemont Church Chapel, 11300 S. Sam Houston Pkwy E. Houston Texas 77089, on Saturday, February 20, 2010. Visitation will begin at 10 am. A Memorial Service will follow at 10:30 am. Please send all condolences and sympathies to the Ainsworth/Fuller family at 2105 Tower Bridge Rd. Pearland Texas 77581.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Gail... I didn't know. She was a great dog trainer and a great person. She trained our first dogs back in 1978. She will be missed! So sorry Jim and children.
Debbie Hansche

Debbie Hansche - July 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Gail... I didn't know. She was a great dog trainer and a great person. She trained our first dogs back in 1978. She will be missed! So sorry Jim and children.
Debbie Hansche

Debbie Hansche - July 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Gail... I didn't know. She was a great dog trainer and a great person. She trained our first dogs back in 1978. She will be missed! So sorry Jim and children.
Debbie Hansche

Debbie Hansche - July 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Gail... I didn't know. She was a great dog trainer and a great person. She trained our first dogs back in 1978. She will be missed! So sorry Jim and children.
Debbie Hansche

Debbie Hansche - July 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

BV

“ You were a great friend . Man did we tease each other...and you still liked me. I have spoke of you often thru the years. I wish we could have reconnected.Thanks Gail for being a GREAT FRIEND in my youth and I always remember us laughing like crazy on the school bus!
Dear family please know I share in your grief.
Bernie Van

Bernie Van - March 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ "Death Leaves a Hurt, That No One Can Heal..Memories Leave a Love No One Can Steal"
Gail most definitely left memories! Her uncanny sense of humor could turn any situation into a laughable event. She was unique in so many ways and will probably have the Angels in Heaven laughing uncontrollably, as she did here on Earth. Hopefully, there is a Whataburger in Heaven so she can have her 4:00 AM 'burger.
Jim, you and the family are in our prayers.
Mary Lea Double L White &
Bob Bobcat White/your CB family.

Mary Lea/Bob White - February 21, 2010 at 12:00 AM

LS

“ You always got to do everything before me...right now you are up there with Dad and I know the two of you are having a great time! A toast to you and the good times and the knowledge that it is the good times we will always remember.
No matter the trails we both took or the journey, you were a great sister and you will live on in my heart forever. Keep each other company and here's a raised glass for our reunion someday. Love you! Lynn

Lynn Merlet, Sister - February 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RY

“ Jim an family i am so sorry to hear about gail she was the funniest person in the world,i can see her now wearing her red lipstick in my wedding just to see me laugh.also the crazy things we did together during the cb era.thats a big 10 4 springer mama.always sugar bear.

rolayne young - February 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM

KP

“ Gosh.....so many wonderful memories of you and your family! I'm thinking of you and I know your in a place where we all want to be! You will be greatly missed! I pray for Aimee and Andru's strength through this hard time....WE love you and will see you again

Keli Palmer - February 18, 2010 at 12:00 AM

FL

“ Gail was an inspiration for people with disabilities and will be missed. We are blessed to have known her.

Fort Bend Center for Independent Living - February 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

LO

“ My deepest sympathy to all the family. What a wonderful lady - she thought me so very much. Everyone will miss her.

Lavern Oakes - February 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

HJ

“ To my wife Gail, my best freind an love of my life of so many years.I know is was a short trip for you on the stairway to heaven.Hoping you are getting to meet all the people and loved ones you told me you always wanted to met up with again when you got there. Know I always Loved you and you will always be in heart.

Huband Jim - February 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

YV

“ I was sad to hear of Gail's passing. She helped me twice train two crazy dogs that became part of our family, she did wonders with those dogs that thought they were the boss. She taught me I was the boss...but really she was along! Her love for animal was tremendous! Gail you will be missed by all. Thank you for your smile and patience!!

Yvonne - February 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RM

“ I'll catch you on the flip side on the airwaves in heaven.....Godspeed Springer Momma!

Raymond Mensik - February 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

NG

“ I never had the pleasure of knowing this wonderful woman, but I heard many great things about her from her daughter Aimee. I know she was dearly loved and will be greatly missed.

Aimee, you and your family are in my prayers.

Nancy Griswold - February 16, 2010 at 12:00 AM

VG

“ Gail has brought many laughs to my life and has been my rock for many years. She may be gone but never forgotten. I don't know what I will do not having her on the phone half the night. I guess I will have to sleep now. Liveops will never be the same without her either. She was my best friend, one I could be myself with. the last 12 years have been a blessing knowing someone as kind as Gail. I will always love you & miss you!!

Vikki Grooms - February 16, 2010 at 12:00 AM

DA

“ I have so many memories of Gail and a coffe mug she made me years ago saying tag-a-long. She will be greatly missed! Rip Springer Momma

Donna Ainsworth - February 16, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RK

“ I am so sorry to hear of Gail's passing. She and I spent many hours together raising our girls and training our dogs. She will be missed, but fondly remembered.

Ranelle Krejci - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

GB

“ Aimee and family--
I'm so sorry about your mom. From pictures I've seen on FB, she looked like a fun person as well as a loving and caring one. I hope you and your family find peace. Knowing how I felt when my dad was taken from me just as suddenly, it will be hard; but know she's in wonderful hands and looking down on you and watching over you and your family.

A MW friend,
Ginger

Ginger Ridenour Bird - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SG

“ You are loved very much Aimee. Know that people all around the world are praying for you. Praying for the strength to get through this and for peace in your heart. Your mom will love you always.
xoxo

Sheri Greenall - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MM

“ My heart and prayers go out to the Ainsworth family. My heart is empty without my best friend. Gail, I will always love you and think about you everyday. I will miss our late night chats online and the phone. I miss you so much.

Michael Milligan - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

KV

“ I love you Mama!!! You will always be in my heart and prayers. You have touched my life and for this I will be eternally thankful.

kendra vincent - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ Our thoughts, love, and prayers go out to Aimee and her family during this very difficult time. Please know that there are people way up here in Wisconsin that are thinking about you and your loved ones! May God give you the strength and peace that you need.

Crystal Bos - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

AI

“ I miss you so much. I piece of me will be with you in heaven. I can only imagine how it will feel when we are reunited one day. I am grieving hard! I love you so much, Mama. You were the BEST Adda to Jacob, Joshua and Sarah and I will never let them forget you! Peace Out and Rock On! I love you sooooo much and I can't tell you enough how much I miss you right now.

Aimee - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM

JK

“ I am so saddened by the loss of my sister, but hearing from Aimee how much she enjoyed her grandchildren, I am feeling like she fulfilled her life, and that she made a positive impact on her grandchildren and will be remembered and loved forever. I miss you, sister! Your Florida family is grieving, but remembering the positive times.

Judy Knizner - February 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM