“ To the family of my precious friend, Gale:

I just found out about Gale yesterday and was overcome with grief! We met when Gale moved to Allen and needed a Mary Kay Consultant. She told me that she looked online and saw that my name was Gail, so she called me. I was so thrilled. We instantly connected on that phone call and when I took her what she asked for, we had such a great visit. In mid August, I went and visited her for quite a while in her apartment. She told me she was going to Pennsylvania. We agreed to visit again when she got home. I didn't hear from her and called her and of course, her # was not valid. My husband and I went to her apt and knocked and then went to ask the people in the office and they gave me this news that broke my heart.

Please know your mom's friendship with me, though brief, was something I'll cherish always.

“ Dearest Reesa and Mark, and the whole family...the Hudson family is grieving with you in this very difficult time, but we are also VERY comforted that your mother is in a most wonderful Place right now, rejoicing in the presence of our Lord Jesus. Praise be to God that death is swallowed up in victory and has lost its sting. Yes, there are tears at the moment, but in the twinkling of eye we will ALL be gathered together in Paradise and there will be no more pain! I know this for an absolute certainty. I read the Book, so I know the end of the Story!

We love you guys so much! Lloyd (Hoytie here!!) Hudson and family
