“ *I'm so glad that our lives were blessed by having the opportunity to spend time with Ike and Sue.
Our daughter, Kinley, always wanted to go back to their house and show him how she learned how to rope with the rope he gave her.
Time flies by so quickly. He will be missed by many, but his wisdom and kindness touched so many more.*

“ Ike was the kind of friend that you knew you always had. Even when years had past he always knew who you were and was always glad to see you. He touched so many people and they never knew it. But they were better people for knowing him. See ya on the other side Amigo.

“ Dear Fredrickson Family,

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time.

Gary Lynn was my cousin and I can remember all the times that our families would be together, whether at rodeo's or just visiting. What great times we all had. My brother, Billy Alford and Billy Ross and Gary would be at the nearest arena roping until it was dark! Becky and I would do our girlie things but our brothers were our role models.

Becky and I would always say that we need to meet in Needville and visit with Sue and Gary. I wish I had made this visit a priority. Becky always talked about how much fun your family had; not only family but with friends and more friends.

As I read the obituary and watched the slide presentation, It is amazing how much love all of you share and that he was the patriarch of the family.

Again, my heart breaks for this family and I am praying that our Heavenly Father brings you strength and comfort.

*With love,

“ My first memory of Ike was in his courtroom as a juror. The case was cut and dried in my opinion and a waste of my time and because i was naive, I said it out loud. Ike asked me to approach the bench and I thought I was going to jail. He softly told me this was a civil proceeding and I had to listen to the facts and make a decision based on what I heard. He gave me that infectious smile of his and I went back to my seat. His smile told me "Life doesn't always make sense, just do your best and you will never be disappointed." Ike was a great man!Breck
