“ I worked with Gary for many years at Witco/AkzoNobel chemical plant he was one of a kind, very friendly and a hard worker. Probably one of the most important things was he was a mentor to the younger guys at work. One was my son that still talks about conversations with Gary on graveyards and how much he learned about life and a sense of values. I'm gonna miss ya Gary and thanks for teaching my son. Prayers to his family! Love ya Terry Davis. Enjoy your time in Heaven my friend.
