

George Byron Harper

February 15, 1924 - March 9, 2013

George Byron Harper, 89, of Richmond passed away March 9, 2013. He is preceded in death by his parents, Bud and Lola Harper; Era Mae, his wife of 62 years; and one grandchild, Christopher Nolan. He is survived by his two sons, George Albert of Brazoria and Dennis Nolan of Richmond; by his daughter Lola Margaret Collins of Richmond; two grand children, Dennis Shawn of San Antonio and Jeffrey Don of Richmond; and five great grandchildren, Laken Che, Alissa Nichole, Shaylah Charlene Garza, Hayley Marie and Brent Logan.

George was born in Dallas February 15, 1924 and following graduation from Freer High School in South Texas he moved to Ft. Bend County. After serving in the Army Air Corp in WWII, he became an employee, in 1946, of the old Humble Oil Company in the Thompson Oil Field, retiring 32 years later from Exxon Oil. He married Era Mae Kennedy in 1947 and enjoyed over 60 years of marriage. He and Era Mae moved into Richmond in 1959. Over the years Byron and Era Mae enjoyed traveling and camping. He will be lovingly remembered by all.

Visitation will begin at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 12, 2013 at the First Baptist Church in Richmond, followed by services at 11:00 a.m. at the church. Interment will follow at Morton Cemetery in Richmond.

If desired, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the First Baptist Church of Richmond.

Words of condolence may be left for the Harper family at www.davisgreenlawnfh.com.
