“ My condolences to Gertrude, Diana, Kent and Family.
George and I worked for many years at WKM Cooper Cameron and car pooled from his home. We had an opportunity to share our thoughts and I always found George to be a true, gentle, and kind person.

One experience that we had car-pooling, was one day we decided to "play" in traffic. We picked on the wrong trucker, our antics kinda made him "upset", because he seemed to us to be in too "big a hurry". We tied the trucker up in traffic, and when we finally let him go, he proceeded to with a load of steel teach us a lesson. After chasing us exceeding 100 mph, he kept gaining on us until we finally turned off in Rosenberg. Needless to say, George and I learned a "stern" lesson; "Never play in Traffic"!

Well Done, Ole Buddy!

“ I first met George when he came to work at Dorian Tool. He reminded me a little of my dad in some of his mannerisms and my dad had also worked for WKM for many years. He would like to put on a tough face but he had a heart of gold. I loved the way he would talk about his wife Gertrude and some of the things they would do together. You could tell he had a deep love for her because you could see it in his eyes. It was a pleasure to know him and I will miss his visits to us at Dorian.
My deepest sympathy to Gertrude and his whole family.

“ Mrs. Janik, you and your family are in our prayers and have our deepest sympathy over your loss.

Mr. Janik was a great man, a loving husband, an awesome father, and a wonderful neighbor! I am so grateful that I was blessed with the privilege of knowing him all of my life. Throughout my life I've made a lot of mistakes, but not once did I ever feel that Mr. Janik was ever judging me. He always offered me kind words of encouragement. I really am going to miss him.

Mrs. Janik, if there's anything that I can do for you, please do not hesitate to ask.

May our Lord bless and keep you and your family always,

Jeff, Leighanna, & Brooke
