“ On this date last year....it was your new birthdate! The day of your stem cell transplant! We had so many hopes and wishes. You were doing so good...then wham ...what a shock! God's plan was way different than ours!

Today, we got another Shock! Guess you needed Jami with you. We pray for Jami's family! Losing Kenny not long ago, and Randy, our hearts are just breaking. Jami was a brother to us and we will miss him dearly. Just knowing you guys are all together, I pray will ease our pain. And Rose P!!!. I had no idea...I pray for her family.

It's truly been the saddest year of my life! I knew you meant the world to me...but I really had no idea!!! I'm still waiting for "our ESPNetwork" to kick in. I miss you so much!! So so much! I'll check in every once in awhile. Do what you can to take care of the rest of us down here...till we meet again...and we WILL meet again! Your loving annoying sister,Paula.

The porches that surround my moms home are a constant reminder of the wonderful work he and Gordon so proudly made. “ George, was a wonderful young man when I first knew him, and he turned into a great man. You can always tell the character of a man by the friends he made in life and George had alot of character. He was one of the most caring and sincere people I have ever known and had a heart of gold. My heart hurts to hear of his passing, but now he is no longer in pain. To all of his family I want you to know he was loved by all that had the pleasure of knowing him and is with God at rest now. God be with all of you during this time.

“ So sad to hear of Georgie's passing. Growing up as cousin's, little Georgie, as we called him, was always the life of the party! I always enjoyed barbecue's Uncle Georgie had as well as many family reunions we all had. Even though our lives have kept us apart, I will always have wonderful, fond memories of our family. There is comfort knowing his pain has ended and Little Georgie is in a better place.. Love you all, Mary Beth

“ I loved George! He was such a sweet young man when I knew him in high school. He always made me feel welcome in his world. Such a kind and gracious soul was he! I know he is dancing in God's presence, and I am so grateful for that, because I know I will meet him again when I get there. I so appreciate the light George was in my life as a young woman. He was a genuine and caring soul. I haven't seen George since high school, but let me tell you, I have no doubt he grew into a gracious and loving man. I am grateful that he, at one time in our lives, considered me a friend. I pray his family will have a holy grief, and that God will comfort them and hold them in the palm of His mighty and loving hand. I pray that He will instill in each of them the sure knowledge that this separation is only temporary, and that they will see their son, brother, father, uncle, grandfather, friend, again. I ask the Holy Spirit to comfort you all. Thanks be to God for George! Lovingly, Paula Shaw
