“ *Becky and Reaves family,
Larry and I are so sad about your loss. The last time I saw Mr. Reaves was several years ago when he bought some cattle from us. Daddy said he saw him out at our place not that long ago. They always laughed together as they told stories. I can't imagine my father being gone and here you have lost both your husband and father. Our prayers will be with you all as you try to recover.*

“ Oh the memories Uncle Wilson has left us with - I remember showing all my friend how he could take off his finger, the famous train whistle, his dog and all of the tricks, stopping in at Texas Grill/Denny's to have a cup of coffee, and how he used to pick on MaBess. I'm sure they already have a domino game going on in Heaven. He left many memories for us to cherish until we meet again. We will miss him greatly!! Our thought and prayers are with you Aunt Pernie and the rest of the family.
