“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I hate that I could not be there with you all to share this most needed time together as a family.I had to go to Louisiana.I want to plant a tree in Aunt Georgie's honor.I'll call you guys next week and we'll pick a spot together and set up a date:I'll bring the tree and shovel.I miss you guys and love you all. P.S. I may need a cold beer to lubricate my joints.Love,Andy

“ Aunt Georgie overcame so many tragedies in her life: the untimely death of her beloved husband, Dan; the murder of her brother, Franklin; the loss of her home to a fire, and the death of her youngest child, John. Many would have buckled under the weight of these circumstances, but not Aunt Georgie. Through all of this, she persevered. She held fast and never gave up. She loved and devoted herself to her family. As a single mom, she worked so hard to support them.

I will remember her smiles and laughter. I will think of her each time I read a short story or new book. She was such a voracious reader; I could never keep up with her. She seemed to get a real kick out of that!

She was deeply loved and will be missed by so many. My deepest condolences go out to my cousins and their spouses and all of her siblings.

Spread your lovely new angel wings and fly, Aunt Georgie!! You have earned them. Until we meet again.

*Love,
Your niece, Melissa*
