“ My condolences to the Kettler family. I'll always remember Aunt Georgie manning the entrances at the Lamar football games. It was such a treat to see her smiling face there. Her and daddy (her brother) both loved their Czech polkas didn't they.

What a delight Georgie was to be with. I knew her for a long time, lived in the same town went to St. Paul's Presbyterian Ch., doubled dated with her and Roy. She was always a joy to be around, I was so blessed that I got to see her last year. Troy you were a wonderful son and care giver. May God be with you and Roy through this time, celebrate her life.

Roy and Troy.....so sad to hear about your Mom. She was such a sweet lady with a BIG smile. Back in the early 1970s she took care of our daughter Trisha in her home. Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire family.
