

Gerry Czenski

March 4, 1945 - November 11, 2011

Gerry Czenski, passed away peacefully in her Sugar Land home on Thursday, November 10, 2011. Gerry was born March 4, 1945 in Tylertown, Mississippi to Emmitt and Elsie Davis as the youngest of six children. Her early life growing up in the country with a large extended family helped her develop a lifetime trait of always being devoted to her family and friends.

Her wonderfully warm, unique personality enabled her to never meet a stranger and to nurture a great devotion to the people around her, mostly especially a loving devotion to her three granddaughters, Emily Rachael, Alexis Mae, and Olivia Ruby. As a longtime Catholic Daughter and parishioner of St. Theresa Church, Gerry was always uplifted by her very significant faith community.

Gerry was preceded in death by her parents and her brother James Davis; and earlier this year by her son Richard. She is survived by her loving husband of 35 years, Allen; her devoted daughter, Laraine Smith and granddaughters, Emily, Alexis, and Olivia, all of Sugar Land, Texas. Gerry is also survived by her sisters Ruby Barrientos and husband Leo of Gretna, Louisiana; sister Melba Welch of Bogalusa, Louisiana; sister Doris LaFaye and husband Jack of Lafayette, Louisiana; brother Robert Davis and wife Judy of Pascagoula, Mississippi; and sister-in-law Rosemary Johnson of Benton, Illinois.

Gerry's life will be celebrated with visitation from 6:00 to 8:00 pm Tuesday, November 15 at St. Theresa Catholic Church, 115 St. Theresa Blvd. 7th Street

& Burney Road, Sugar Land followed by a rosary at 8:00 pm with Father Roy Oggero presiding. The Rite of Christian Burial will be celebrated with Mass at 12 noon on Wednesday, November 16, 2011 at St. Theresa Church with Reverend Stephen B. Reynolds presiding, followed by the Rite of Committal at Davis-Greenlawn cemetery in Rosenberg, Texas.
Condolences may be left for the Czenski family at: www.davisgreenlawn.com

“ Dear Big Al, So sorry to hear of your loss...Gerry was such a joy and delight. I remember how she took Baron, Georgine and I under her wings and would fix gumbo for us all for lunch. Said we needed to get a good meal from time to time, and hers was the best...such a sweet lady. Take care....Lanelle
