“Darling Glenda, My Glenda, was my babysitter when I was a little girl. She lived down the street from me on Rosebud. She was the best babysitter I had ever had and the big sister I always prayed for. She came to all my slumber parties. She always portrayed the love, patience and character of Christ. I love her dearly and I will miss her so. Terry Durrani, Rosenberg, TX.

“Along with many good memories of Glenda - My 1st airplane flight was with Glenda. I live in Florence, AL and she lived in Muscle Shoals, AL at the time. She planned to go visit her mother in Rosenberg and asked me to go with her. I had a great time. It was the month of my birthday and she had a small gift wrapped for me to open each day I was there. I will miss her a lot even though now it was not very often that we were able to see each other. Praying for you all. Love, Joyce Harper

“ I have so many memories that it is hard to pin point just one. Glenda's father was like a big brother to me and wherever we lived while I was growing up, they came to visit and we did them. This closeness continued with Glenda and I and became even closer after her mother died. I don't think there was anything we wouldn't do for each other.

The year after her mother died, I invited Glenda to spend Christmas with me and she did.

Glenda, Bud, her brother, Gary, all three of their children, and Stacey's three children.

She spent over a month with me in 2012, during that time for some unknown reason, we were talking about tattoos. I convinced her that I had a secret tattoo. She was never sure whether I actually had a tattoo or not and that was always one of the things she asked every time I saw her.

Also, about 5 years ago, Glenda came to stay with me while I had some very minor surgery. after the surgery, Glenda left me at home and went to the vet to pick up my dog. She found the vet, but couldn't find her way home. It took her nearly 3 hours and 3 phone calls to make the 15 minute trip home.

“ Dustin,

I only got to meet your mom one time. At your sweet wedding. She was so excited and you were her pride and joy. I know that man she raised and her and your daddy did a good job. Jacob and I are thinking of you two and praying for you and your family. I know how you feel and there's no words I can say that can bring you peace and comfort, other than one day it will get better, I promise. We love you, ASHLEY and JACOB
