Glenn Ford Winston Jochech, 86, of Stafford, Texas was born on September 2, 1934 in Bellville, Texas to Franklin & Rosie Jochech, and went to be with Our Lord on August 10, 2021.

He is preceded in death by his daughter, Glenda Jochech Stewart, his parents Franklin & Rosie Jochech, and his brothers Al & Leonard Jochech.

Glenn is survived by his devoted and loving wife, Sedonia Engelhardt Jochech; daughter, Valerie Jochech Williams and husband, Chris; son in law, Mark Stewart and wife, Sue; grandsons, Weston & Colby Stewart and Anthony "A.J." Williams; granddaughters, Tiffany Williams Wagner and husband, Matt; Kayla Stewart Cook and husband, Cameron; Emalee Smith and husband, Alan; Erin Stewart and husband, Matt McLeese; and Ellee Best and husband, Sam. Great-grandchildren, Hazel & James Wagner; Elliott, Audrey & Anna Cook; Sophie & Bennett Smith; Harper & Judin Best; and his only living brother, Lloyd Jochech and wife, Barbara, and multiple nieces & nephews.

Glenn moved from Bellville to Stafford, Texas at a very young age and graduated from Missouri City High School. After receiving a basketball scholarship to Sam Houston State University, he graduated with a Business Degree in 1957. He met the love of his life, Sedonia Engelhardt, and they married having 64+ wonderful years together. Glenn honorably served our country in the United States Army and Army Reserves. He was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Sugar Land for 57+ years and served as a Deacon and Elder and taught Sunday school for years. He retired from Champion (later Simpson) Paper Company after 38 years of devoted service.

Glenn was a man of character, strength and love. He never met a stranger and could make you feel like he knew you forever even if you had just met. He loved to tell a good story. He was a tremendous athlete and still holds basketball records at Sam Houston. He would say his claim to fame was receiving Honorable Mention All-American behind Wilt Chamberlain. His greatest joy in life was his love for his family and above all, his love for the Lord. He will truly be missed by all.
