“ *RIP my sweet brother,
You were the light and joy of our family.
You were my big brother that I always looked up to. You were a devoted son, husband, parent, family to all and friend of many.
I remember when you were 10 years old and sold newspapers on the corners of Corsicana. From there you never stopped believing, if you thought it, you could do it.
You were successful In everything you tried because your power of positive thinking never let you down.
You, sweet bother, was my hero and I admired you because you did it your way.
I'll always and forever love and miss you.
Your little sis,
Diana*
