“We extend our deepest condolences to the entire Bijarro family on behalf of the Villagomez family. We have been life-long friends with David and his family and have shared many memories together. It is a sad day for all of us who knew him, his family and his many friends. Our Lord has welcome a new member into heaven for he truly lived a Christian life. Our prayers go out to all the Bijarro family in coping with his loss. He will be missed, but his legacy will continue through them. Efrain”
