“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire Garcia family. There are no words to express our sorrow for the loss of such a warm and loving woman. She always extended her hospitality and welcoming gestures to us and we will miss the kindness she brought to our family. We hold her memory in high regard and are grateful to have known her. We pray that the love she leaves in each of her family members will bring you comfort in the days ahead. May God's grace bring you peace. The Sampson Family Christie, Mike, and Caden
