“ I enjoyed working with mr Grantham, he was a hard working, no nonsense, individual, didn't say much but when he did, you best listen because when he had something to say it was important. And he did not beat around the bush, straight to the point and if it hurt your feeling he probably ment to, he was a good man and will be sorely missed, my condolences to the family, may he rest in peace. clr9bc

“ H.L. & Tammy, I am so sorry for the loss of your father. I remember him as a hardworking man, and always to the point when he wanted something or had something to say. He was always a good and honorable man in everything he did. I will always remember the stories, you shared with me about your father. Every time I was around your dad, he reminded me of my dad, in the way he acted. He demanded respect, and expected only the best from everyone around him, especially in his house. I will always have fond memories of your father.

“ Ed & Julie, your loss has touched us both deeply, as losing a father no matter at what age leaves a void in our lives--never to be filled. I hope in the coming days as you as a family celebrate his life, you will find peace in his passing, rejoice in all the times you shared, and make the most of the wisdom and learning's he passed on. “ Papa was a man who loved to laugh and tease, loved his family, and had a strong sense of what was right. He was a formidable 42-player, an avid fisherman, a fan of the Astros and NASCAR, brave enough to scale tall buildings, and a real magnet for small dogs, whom we know are the true judges of good character. We all miss him dearly.
