“ Just like Janet said, it's very hard to remember times without the Parchmont's. It seemed like every weekend was at lake Rayburn, camping, fishing, riding our bikes and running through the woods. Every Sunday afternoon it was time to load up and head back to Stafford, but not until Harvey's case of Black Label bottles where all found, to be returned for a refund. I truly believe he deliberately hide some every now and then just to make us look harder and longer. Then, we all bought lots in Sargent, it was every weekend down there for seemed like decades. But it was some of the best times ever as a kid growing up with some many around. The cabins still stand and are occupied, wonder what it would be like to go back in time and make a few more memories. Sorry to hear Harvey is gone, but happy he is once again reunited with Wanda and my mom and dad (Ronnie and Allene Davis). Cherry Davis Williams

“ To all the kids, I can't remember my childhood without a Harvey and Wanda story and all the camping trips and Sargent! Wonderful times with this great family. Harvey was my dad's best friend and they truly loved each other, they are all together now. I will not be able to make the service for your father and for that I am sorry but please know you are all in my prayers. Janet Davis Blake
