“ My uncle Hector knew how much I loved beef jerky, and we were at the house, It was towards evening, and he told me.. hey!!.. I got your beef jerky, it's in the barn, I'm like yay,, okay!. he goes go and get it,! I'm like okay, and when I open the door,, what do I see,??, this huge beef cow hanging on a hook, and I said?! that's not beef jerky,, "he said" well it's a beef cow,, that's good enough, "I thought that was hilarious," he was always a joker, always made me laugh,

One more, my uncle Hector was the first one of course,, along with my aunt Lydia, cuz they were on a date, was the first person, that I ate a Burger King, hamburger with .., Burger King had just opened up a restaurant, I don't remember where it was but anyway, he took me there with my aunt Lydia, and that hamburger was huge, so that was my first experience at Burger King in Texas.. Love you Uncle Hector, thank you for all that you did, when I lived in Texas, as a teen.. ❤️🥰
