“ My sweet aunt Helen . you will be missed we loved u . I will always remember those great times together as young kids being at your house. You taught us so much. It was from you that taught me how to make homemade donuts put of bisquites during our swimming parties at your house. I have great memories of you holding my oldest child so many years ago. What great times we had . to her family .....I'm so sad for your loss . your family is in my prayers. With love your niece.....Brenda Blume Cano.
