“ We are so sorry to the Smolik Family on the loss of your Mom. She was the bus driver for many years and picked my girls up going to Needville School. I can remember her giving them a Valentine sucker or an Easter Egg on those special holidays. She was a very caring lady.

“ To Gary and Ronnie and family...Helen was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. She always had a smile on her face and knew no stranger. I will always remember her love for the kids on her bus...we had lots of good laughs. She was loved and will be missed!
