“ Henry was a very kind and smart man. He was wonderful teacher to many students here.
He was the RoCK of our church.
He will be sorely missed and always willing to help where needed.
He was a wonderful dad and grandfather and friend.
