“ I'm so sorry for your loss. He was a wonderful wonderful man. I spent couple summers over there playing with his grandkids, and would see him ride his 3-wheeler to the store and by the fields. Heaven gained one more amazing angel. Sincerest condolences. Rest easy PawPaw.

“ To all the family,
Max and I hated to hear of Henry's passing. The memory that lives with me is when Pop would come to our river place and visit with Max and I. It was so pleasant. He had a sense of calmness that I admired. I will never forget his smile and the way he laughed when he would get tickled about something. Rest in peace Pop and we will always remember you forever especially when we are at the river. Forever in our hearts. May peace and comfort abide in all his loved ones during this time. God Bless!
