“ I will never forget our camping trips and the whistle when Uncle Herman and Aunt Dorothy wanted you to return to camp. LOL. We had wonderful Easter egg hunts, Christmas celebrations, reunions, etc. I meet people every day who never had Aunts and Uncles and cousins who were close to them and their loss is huge and makes me feel blessed everyday. Having you all as our family has made us all better adults. My heart and prayers are with all of you and I love you all dearly.

“ Herman was a great friend of almost 60 years. He and Dorothy were the kind of friends that you could go several years without talking to then call and it would be like you talked to them yesterday. We will miss Herman and Dorothy forever.
