

Hertha B. Meyer

February 13, 1915 - December 29, 2020

Hertha B. Gebauer Meyer
1915 - 2020

Hertha B. Gebauer Meyer, 105, of Sugar Land, Texas passed away on December 29, 2020. She was born in 1915, to Joseph and Antonia Pohl Gebauer. Hertha was a long-time member of St. Theresa Catholic Church in Sugar Land, and was a member of the Gathering Place and Sugar Canes and a member of the Catholic Daughters. She enjoyed tending to her garden and was especially fond of growing her geraniums. She and her husband, Otto, enjoyed dancing and listening to German Polka Music. Hertha took great pride in caring for her family. It's been said that she made the best homemade bread and took great pride in putting meals together completely from scratch and grown from her own house. This loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt and friend will truly be missed.

In addition to her parents, Hertha is preceded in death by her husband, Otto F. Meyer; great grandson, Ian Hampton Meyer; and all of her siblings.

Survivors include her children: J.D. Meyer (Melinda), Marjorie Husbands (Tim) and Butch Meyer (Beatrice); grandchildren: JoAnna Burton (Allen), John Meyer (Beth), Jeff Husbands, Jona Husbands (Rachel) and Michael Meyer (Christina); along with numerous great grandchildren, extended family and friends.

A graveside service will be held at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, January 2, 2021 at Greenlawn Memorial Park in Rosenberg.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at St. Theresa Catholic Church in Sugar Land at a later date.

The family would like thank Bonnie Daniels, Hertha's caregiver, for her dedication and care.

“ We always loved to talk with Hertha after church at St. Theresa's and recall how her and Paul Flessner were related. Her father was called "Big Joe" {Joseph Gebauer) and Paul's maternal grandfather was called "Little Joe" (Joseph Gebauer), and since "Big Joe" was a brother to "Little Joe's" father John Gebauer, that made "Big Joe" uncle to "Little Joe" and Paul's mother Julia Gebauer Flessner was great niece to "Big Joe" and cousin to Hertha Gebauer Meyer, which in turn made Hertha & Paul cousins.

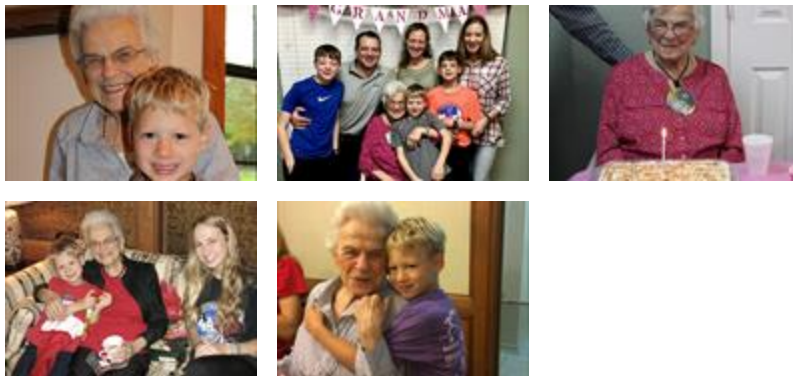

We were so blessed to get to see her at her 100th birthday at the Community Center and meet her son J.D., and also at the special Mass at St. Theresa's on her 105th birthday and took photos with her. These photos will always be treasured memories of a beautiful and loved person and relative.

Her family are in our thoughts and prayers,
Paul A. & Helen Flessner
