“ I've been reflecting back over the many years that I've had the distinct honor of knowing this extended family & the many loved ones across the many generations of family that I've personally known & loved, that have made the journey home to be with the Father. It's hard to believe that seeing you grow up, become a young man, get married and have your own family, that you are now gone. Father God has called you by name and you obeyed. Your journey was a long one but you were not alone for your wife, children, mother, and extended family were always at your side. You will be sorely missed by all who love you, for you made a difference in their lives and in the lives of all who knew you.

“ *My condolences to the whole Family, i am so sad to hear that you are gone my friend.
I haven't seen you in a long time, since High School JROTC.
He always made jokes and always very kind.
Rest In Peace my friend.*
