“ I met you in TAPS, I remember what nerve it took for me to talk to you. But from that moment and for the next couple weeks you became the best friend I ever had, could ever think of having. Then you left before I did, I remember the day your dad came and got you very clearly, about broke my heart but I had a few months left. Then contact was lost. Every few months I would try and find you on social media, never there. Then 6 years later I move to texas and finally google your name, I'll be damned what came up. First thing I saw I knew it wasn't you, but nothing else was. Click on the first thing just for the hell of it and I see your beautiful face right there, I can't say what happened from there, but just know you are missed and will always be apart of my heart. Going to miss you dearly and I wish we could have spent so civilian time together.

“ Writing this on Veteran's day is tough. I met Hollye my freshmen year in high school, her senior year. We played ball against each other. Little did I know at the time that Hollye would grow to be a big influence on my life. She always worked hard, always did her best and was one hell of a soldier. I know she is up in heaven watching over all of us, helping us everyday. Hollye, I miss you girl! Thank you for being such a wonderful person in my life!

“ Dearest Meeks family...on your cherished loved child, Hollye,

I never knew your daughter but only by a chance in speaking to Randy one or twice as an AT&T technician did he fill my ears of your beautiful daughter, such a loving presence and expression of you both, a gift no doubt from God... and as tragic events will happen, still, the strength and courage that God fills each one will ever be at your grasp, and all we need do is trust. It isn't easy this life of trails and heartaches, still better to dive deep into our heart's silent alter for His Presence. Hold to the fond memories...This loss, you will not forget, Her love, remains....

Through the love of God, Jesus the Christ, and the Masters of Self Realization Fellowship, I respectfully send my condolences,

Rebecca

“ There are no words at a time like this to truly express the sadness in this loss. I will always remember Hollye as the bright, loving young lady she was. She has always been a bright spot in my memories of Beasley Elem. School. She was a joy to teach and to talk with. The Christmas light she gave me has always burned every year and will continue to do so as I will always remember her. Blessings to you and your family. “ My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family at this difficult time. I had the privilege of meeting Hollye during boot camp in 2004. She was our platoon guide and carried our flag with honor. She lead by example and pushed us to work harder and faster every day. It may have only been 3 months, but that time made the most impact on me. The Corps may have taken us in different directions but it was the example she set that inspired me to be an outstanding Marine every day. May she be guarding heaven’s doors and protecting us from above.

“ Hollye was a friend and a classmate of mine B.F. Terry High School graduating class of 2004. I remember Hollye as this always active person and always having a basketball in her hand. She was just that likeable person that everyone knew and got along with. The news of her passing has deeply saddened me. In recent times it seems like one tragedy after another, another life gone too soon. But one thing I know is certain is that God makes no mistakes and all of his works have a purpose. It is in my whole hearted prayer that God supply your family with the peace, strength and understanding of will. Today might be dark, the night might have some lingering shadows, but with the setting of the morning dew there is always great joy. many blessings.

I know that she is looking down on everyone now smiling because she is at peace. God seen fit to bring his child home and he never makes mistakes no matter what the situation may have been. My only wish in life was to meet her in person before I died. That day did not come. I do entertain the bible based hope that we will be reunited with our dead loved ones in paradise right here on earth. This is not just a hope but a promise. So now I will wait on Jehovah. Not a promise failed out of all of the good promise that Jehovah has made. It all comes true. Jos 21:45; Ps 37:11,29; Jn 5:28-29; Ac 24:15; Re 21:3-4
